Dear Friends

First of all, I want to tell you that we got a call from our oldest son, Bobby. He is safe and sound today after his time in Iraq. Thank you so much for praying for him.

God has been so gracious to us in our ministry, giving us the privilege to serve Him in several countries. Imagine my surprise when I received an email from a member of Christ Covenant Church in Matthews, NC, asking me to consider being the keynote speaker at a women's conference in Haiti. I was asked to speak about being a godly mother.

After much prayer I accepted the challenge. Virginia and I drove up to the church last weekend and met with most of the team. We also enjoyed a visit with one of our former pastors and his wife, Mike and Jane Ross.

I will leave for Haiti on Friday, January 25th and would ask that you pray for several things:

_ Safe travel

_ God to work in my heart as I pray through what God has been teaching me. He has revealed to me that this is more about teaching me what I need to know about being a godly woman/mother my teaching others.

_ For the Haitian ladies that we will minister to.

_ For the rest of the team - some of them doing medical work.

_ For Bill and the kids back in Surfside.

I know you will pray and thank you ahead of time.

The other exciting news is that Bill has been asked to teach at the Belize Seminary. I get to go, too! This is my first trip back since we left over two years ago and I can't wait to see the ladies and other friends. We leave for Belize on February 15th and will return on the 20th. Bill will also have the blessing of being able to preach in San Narciso on Sunday and at the Tuesday evening service before we return to the States.

Please pray:

_ Safe Travel

_ For us to be open to what God has to teach us

_ For our Belizean friends

_ For the kids – good friends will take care of them while we are gone.

In the meantime we continue to minister through the ESL outreach programs. Bill has two training seminars coming up, one in January and the other in February. He will train church members how to start up their ESL program. It is exciting to see God open up these doors.

Thanks for praying,

Sherry Day (for the Day clan)
