Amy's Surgery Update

Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for your prayers for Amy. God has protected and blessed her. Her sinus surgery went smoother than expected, and we are thankful to be back home and resting. The doctor believes that the surgery was a success, but the real test will be whether or not the problems come back (this is the second sinus surgery in two years for Amy). Please pray for her complete healing.

For now, Amy is pretty tired and a little achy and swollen, but that is to be expected. Over the next few days she'll be able to ease back into regular life, maybe in time for a Christmas Eve dinner with some friends (at which her only responsibility is to show up and eat). We are so thankful for all your prayers, calls and emails and for the many people here whom the Lord brought to us to help. May you have a wonderful Christmas and a blessed New Year.

In Christ,

The Robertsons
